

CareerX Information Night

CareerX is a Career Exploration and Employability Skills training transition program for high school students with special needs. Students explore various career options through five different career pathways and participate in community work experiences. Students who attend the program learn about transitional services, practice independent living skills and prepare for competitive employment. Students who complete the program can begin and entry-level job, apply to Project SEARCH or pursue further training.

Diamond Oaks Career Campus

Instructor Deena Hannon - 513.612-5743 or jacobd@greatoaks.com

Deena Hannon will be scheduling visits with affiliated schools. Contact Deena for more information or to schedule an individual tour.

Laurel Oaks Career Campus

Instructor Kelly Keeton - 937.655.5462 or keetonk@greatoaks.com

Kelly Keeton will be scheduling visits with affiliated schools. Contact Kelly for more information or to schedule an individual tour.

Live Oaks Career Campus

Instructor Alicia Dorsey - 513.612.4995 or dorseya@greatoaks.com

Alicia Dorsey will be scheduling visits with affiliated schools. Contact Alicia for more information or to schedule an individual tour.

January 26, 2023 5-7:00 pm at Live Oaks Campus

